

What's The Big Idea?

There's nothing more impressive than wrapping an entire building with your brand. And you can do it—almost anywhere—with bluemediTM. Mega-messages like these aren't just for Times Square anymore. We invite you to think big and challenge us with your ideas. Our production capabilities mean there is literally no limit to how large you can go. And printing is just for starters. We can manage the entire process, from city codes and street-blocking permits, to installation cranes and helicopters. You find the structure, we'll find the solution. Trust bluemedi to design, manufacture, ship and install an awesome building wrap that will grab people's attention and never let go.
